Chairmen: H. Bauer, Stockholm, S. Granlien, Oslo

08.30 L32 RESPECT – Rehabilitation including social, physical activity and education in children and teenagers with cancer
H. Baekgaard, Copenhagen

08.50 L33 Teenagers losing a parent to cancer. Experience, modifiable risk factors and long-term outcome
T. Bylund Grenklo, Stockholm

09.10 L34 Benefits and rationale for exercise during cancer therapy
M. Quist, Copenhagen

09.30 L35 Sarcoma patients' advocacy groups in Europe
E. Lecointe, Sarcoma Patients Euro Net (SPAEN)

09.50 Discussion

10.00-10.30 Coffee break (Marmorvalvet/The Marble Vault)

10.30-12.00 Session V – Medical treatment of advanced soft tissue sarcoma

Chairmen: M. Eriksson, Lund, A. Krarup-Hansen, Herlev

10.30 L36 How and when to treat advanced GIST – with examples from real life in Eastern Germany
P. Reichardt, Berlin

11.00 L37 How and when and for how long to use chemotherapy – with examples from real life in Texas
B. Benjamin, Texas

11.30 L38 How and when and for whom to use targeted therapy – with examples from real life in Lombardia
S. Stacchiotti, Milan

12.00–13.00 Lunch in Södra Ljugården

13.00 L39 Scandinavian Sarcoma Group: Bone sarcoma trials
K. Sundby Hall, Oslo

L40 Scandinavian Sarcoma Group: Soft tissue sarcoma trials
M. Eriksson, Lund

L41 Scandinavian Sarcoma Group: Recommendations for radiotherapy
N. Jebsen, Bergen

13.40-15.30 Session VI - Poster presentations

Chairmen: M. Eriksson, Lund, B. Brodin, Stockholm

P1 Denosumab in patients with giant-cell tumor of bone in Norway; results from a nationwide cohort
K. Boye et al, Oslo, Norway

P2 Computer-guided pelvic tumor resection and reconstruction with a custom made prosthesis produced in a 3-D printer. A case report.
R. Löfvenberg et al, Umeå, Sweden

P3 Serum beta-HCG as a tumor marker in a patient with osteosarcoma: case report
M. Jagodic, Ljubljana, Slovenia

P4 The microenvironment of soft tissue sarcomas. Predominance of tumor associated macrophages and expression of immunomodulating molecules.
P. Tsaogzis et al, Stockholm, Sweden

- P5 High tenascin C expression is associated with shorter time to recurrence in desmoid tumors
H. Ihalainen et al, Helsinki, Finland
- P6 Sirtuin expression, activity and inhibition in Pediatric Soft Tissue Sarcomas
B. Brodin et al, Stockholm, Sweden
- P7 The significance of major and minor tumor rupture of small bowel gastrointestinal stromal tumors (GISTs)
T. Hølmekjakk, et al, Oslo, Norway
- P8 Surgery alone is sufficient in patients with liposarcoma of the spermatic cord: our experience of 5 patients
KHD Chan et al, Singapore
